

INTERNSHIP

Kemco GmbH is pleased to offer the following internship position: Drilling Engineer Intern

Work Location: Regensburg, Germany

Period: 01.09.2020 to 26.02.2021 (flexible)

Deadline: 30.06.2020 12:00:00

E-mail Title: Kemco Internship - "Name"

E-mail Address: julio.kemenyfy@kemco-drilling.de

Description

- The drilling engineer intern will support with planning geothermal wells and during the execution phase with drilling performance analyses from our Regensburg office.

Task And Responsibilities

- Well planning, including preparation of offset well analyses and activity programs
- Well design and related calculations
- Selection of service companies, tender documentation and communication
- Daily follow-up of drilling and well operations during execution
- Experience transfer and preparations of end of well reporting

Requirements

- Pursuing Bachelor or Master studies in Earth Science - or Petroleum Engineering
- Previous experience in drilling industry is an advantage
- Availability for Erasmus+ scholarship for internships or other scholarship
- Motivation letter and CV by the above-mentioned deadline.

Personal Qualities

- Decisive and with ability to deliver according to plan
- Language requirements: English is a must, German, Hungarian, French or Dutch are advantageous
- Good cooperation and communication are essential

We offer

- Friendly work environment in Regensburg
- Professional development
- Internship wage

Kemco GmbH is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage applications from anyone meeting the requirements for this position.

Information

For more information about the position above or working for Kemco GmbH, please contact:
Julio Kemenyfy - julio.kemenyfy@kemco-drilling.de